

Gravenhurst Public Library Wifi User Agreement (GPL Policy No. 33: Internet Access)

The Gravenhurst Public Library provides access to computer equipment, programs, databases and the Internet (collectively, the “computer resources”) for informational and educational purposes.

Computer resources (including wifi) may not be used for the following purposes:

Violation of any applicable laws or regulations; accessing or transmitting of hate literature; accessing or transmitting of pornographic material; harassment of other persons or parties; libel or slander of other persons or parties; destruction of or damage to equipment, software or data belonging to the Library or other users; gaining or attempting to gain unauthorized access to any computing, information, or communications devices or resources; disruption or unauthorized monitoring of electronic communications; unauthorized copying of copyright or other protected material; violation of computer system security; unauthorized use of computer accounts, access codes, or network identification numbers assigned to others; violation of software license agreements; violation of another person’s or party’s privacy; any and all other matters which the Library, in its sole discretion, in consideration of the best interests of the public, determines to be an unacceptable purpose.

The Library staff reserves the right to take appropriate action to insure compliance with this policy. Violators may lose the privilege of using the Library’s computer resources for a period of time or permanently. Where appropriate, violators may be subject to prosecution.

The Library does not monitor or control information accessible through the Internet and is not responsible for its content. Users should be aware that the Internet is not a secure medium and that third parties may be able to obtain information regarding users’ activities.

Our Internet Access Policy applies to all users, including people using GPL’s wireless connection.

I understand, agree and ACCEPT the terms of the Gravenhurst Public Library Wifi User Agreement.
