Term of By-law

By-law 2019-91 was passed on December 17, 2019 by the Town of Gravenhurst Council and came into effect on January 1, 2020. This by-law is set to expire on January 1, 2025.

Purpose of Development Charges

Development charges are used to pay for capital costs associated with providing infrastructure and services for new development and redevelopment.

Development charge funds may only be used for the purpose for which they are collected.

Development Charges Related Services

The following is a list of services to which the development charges relate:

- Roads and Related
- Fire Protection
- Outdoor Recreation
- Library
- General Government
- Stormwater Management

Rules for Determining if a Development Charge is payable:

In general you may be required to pay development charges for land development or redevelopment projects if you are:

- Constructing a new building;
- Making an addition or alteration to an existing building that increases the number of dwelling units;

- Redeveloping a property where the existing gross floor area is being increased.

Examples of when a Development Charge is not payable:

- When an existing dwelling unit is enlarged;
- Secondary suites contained within a single detached or semi-detached dwelling, townhouse / row home, or ancillary to the same including a coach house, laneway suite or structure above an existing garage, a bunkie or a sleeping cabin with or without a bathroom and / or kitchen facilities;
- For Commercial or Industrial development that is not commercial accommodation premises;
- Farm buildings/structures used to carry on a bona fide farming operation, such as barns, silos and other ancillary development to an agricultural use, but excludes buildings used for residential purposes.

Development Charge Collection

Development charges are payable in full on the date that the building permit application is submitted.

Under the Development Charges Act S. 26.1; Rental housing (4 or more units); Institutional Development (Long Term Care Homes, Retirement Homes, Post-Secondary Institutions and Hospice) payment of the Development Charges is deferred to 6 installments (the date of occupancy and then each of the following five anniversaries). Not-for-profit housing is payable over 21 installments. A Development Charge rate is frozen under S. 26.2 of the Development Charges Act and is determined at the later of the day of application for site plan control or the day of application for zoning amendment

Rate are indexed annually, on January 1st of each year, without amendment to the bylaw.

Redevelopment

A credit will be provided against development charges owing where buildings or structures are redeveloped within 5 years of demolition (with proper approval and permits) or fire.

Statement of the Treasurer

The Treasurer of the Town of Gravenhurst is responsible for the development charges reserve fund. The Treasurer's Annual Statement, identifying opening and closing balances and transactions during the year, is presented to Council on or before May 1 of each and every year.
